2 Kings 5---“A Servant Girl and a Syrian General”

Zach Fulginiti

Sunday morning, November 8th, 2026

1. Can you remember a time you were gifted with undeserved grace or unexpected grace?

2. The taken in battle Israelite slave girl, in a foreign land, courageously uses her voice to announce “who would cure Naaman of his leprosy”. Can you tell of a time you were so bold as the slave girl to proclaim Christ?

3. Naaman’s servant girl responded with unwavering grace, while the king of Israel responded with fear and unbelief. What does this teach us about influence and faithfulness?

4. What does Naaman’s initial reaction to Elisha’s instructions reveal about pride and humility?

5. How did Naaman respond to being cleansed? Was he a changed man? How do we know?

6. Who in your life could you be pointing to grace? To Christ? And how?

7. Lifelong believers can often find themselves sitting in an embarrassment of riches, like Gehazi. How do we guard our heart and choose the good portion?
