LIFE AT CHRIST COVENANT

Sunday, June 16, 2019

Seek the City Begins Tonight!

Seek the City is the “stay-at-home” summer mission trip for Christ Covenant Church. Middle and high school youth set aside a week in the summer to serve the communities of Charlotte and Matthews. We call it a “stay-at-home” mission because the students and their leaders live on our campus for the entire week. Students and leaders serve throughout the day running sports camps and vacation Bible school, partnering with programs in the local schools for at-risk students, serving nursing homes, and completing work projects for senior citizens in our church, to name just a few opportunities. Then, every evening all of the participants meet for worship, teaching in the Word and engaging in team meetings.

A huge THANK YOU to everyone volunteering, bringing food and/or snacks and for praying! We hope you will join us in praying throughout the week for Seek the City!

RTS Students Need Housing

Reformed Theological Seminary's student body is growing! We are currently searching for housing options for new students as they move to Charlotte. If you have an above-garage apartment, a spare room, or a rental property, would you prayerfully consider renting to a seminary student? Helping house our students is a wonderful way to partner with RTS as we train our students for ministry. For more information, please contact Katy McIlvaine in the RTS admissions office: kmcilvaine@rts.edu or 704-688-4220.

New to the Book Nook

Missional Motherhood: The Everyday Ministry of Motherhood in the Grand Plan of God by Gloria Furman

In this book, Gloria Furman searches the Scriptures for the mission of God in motherhood. She opens our eyes to God's life-giving promises - promises intended to empower each and every woman as she makes disciples in her home, in her neighborhood, and around the world.

Evangelism as Exiles: Life on Mission as Strangers in our Own Land by Elliot Clark

Drawing on years of ministry in a Muslim-majority nation, Elliot Clark guides us through Peter's letter with striking insights for today. Whether we're in positions of power or weakness, influence or marginalization, all of us are called to live and witness as exiles in a world that's not our home. This is our job description. This is our mission. This is our opportunity.

HIGHLIGHT Father's Day 2019

Dear Father, Daddy, God and Jehovah:

What a day!? A day to remember who has taught me, guided me and instilled wisdom in me my entire life. You have promised countless times that you love me. You have promised countless times that you will never leave me. You even went so far as to show me how much you love me by sending your only Son. Can I ask for anything else? Of course I can, and I always do. As any good father would do, you do what you feel is right in [deciding if or when] I should get what I ask for.

I hope one day to be even half or even a quarter of the Father you've been to me. I hope that when my kids need something, I'm there for them as you have been for me. I hope that when my kids have questions, that I'm there for them as you have been for me. I hope that when they are going through good times or bad that I'm there for them, just as you have always been there for me.

So I end this letter by thanking you for being my Father and by writing that I have been VERY blessed by being one of your children! Furthermore, I want to thank you for your undivided attention for me by treating me as your only child when I'm talking, even though you have countless children.

Happy Father's Day!

Love your son,

Aaron
