

Jonathan Edwards

Trinity

1. Trinity: "It is common when speaking of the Divine happiness to say that God is infinitely happy in the enjoyment of Himself, in perfectly beholding and infinitely loving, and rejoicing in, His own essence and perfection, and accordingly it must be supposed that God perpetually and eternally has a most perfect idea of Himself, as it were an exact image and representation of Himself ever before Him and in actual view, and from hence arises a most pure and perfect act or energy from the Godhead, which is the Divine love, complacence (pleasure), and joy."
 - The Father is Deity in direct existence, the Son is Deity generated, the Spirit is Deity breathed forth
2. Self love: The capacity of enjoying or taking delight in anything. Self love drives our happiness. We love the things that make us happy.
3. Disinterested love: "interest" means "get benefit from". So disinterested love means a type of love that is not based on receiving a benefit from the person loved.
