Sermon Discussion Guide

Romans 3:27-28---Kevin DeYoung

"Faith Alone"

Sunday morning, September 27th, 2026

1. Was justification by faith alone something that was taught in the church you grew up in?

2. Can you share a time in which you received something that you didn't contribute anything to?

3. Why is the idea that we contribute nothing to our own salvation so difficult for us to accept?

4. How does James' view of the necessity of works reconcile with faith alone (Sola Fide) as expressed by Paul in Romans 3? (James 2:18-26 and Romans 3:27-28)

5. Pastor Kevin used an example of walking on ice to remind us of the importance of the object of our faith. Why is it important to keep our eyes on the object of our faith as opposed to just having faith in and of itself?

6. How should a proper understanding of faith alone impact the following?
   a. Your assurance of salvation.
   b. Your worship.
   c. How you relate to other people.
   d. Evangelism.
   e. Good works.
